

THE VETERAN TYPE-SETTER

HONEST UNCLE HORACE AMONG HIS FELLOW CRAFTSMEN.

A Great Day in Jones's Wood. The Farmer of Chappano at the Typographical Picnic—Great Enthusiasm and Confusion.

The annual picnic of Typographical Union No. 6, in Jones's Wood, on Saturday, drew about three thousand printers and their friends to the grounds. The great event of the festival was the visit of the first President of the Union, Horace Greeley.

At 6 o'clock, Robert O. Harmon, Secretary of the Union, and Mr. Thomas Burke engaged a coach and went to the Grand Central Depot to receive the great agricultural prince on his arrival from Chappano.

A few moments after 8 the coach containing Mr. Greeley was driven up to the platform. It was known to but a few that their distinguished guest had arrived, and the dining went on as usual. Mr. Greeley was escorted to the reception room, where Robert O. Harmon, the President of the Union, and the Reception Committee greeted him.

The great printer was attired in a dark suit, white vest, and wore the traditional white hat. He seated himself near the large round table, and soon began to converse with the members of the Reception Committee.

Flashing the history that on the table, he smiled benignly upon all.

Mr. Greeley, who had been introduced to the members of the Reception Committee, "we are glad to have you with us. You have done us much good."

"Thank you," he replied. "I am very much pleased to be with my fellow-craftsmen. But I must be brief, for I have much to do."

Why, then, he said, "I am not here to do anything but to be with you. I am not here to do anything but to be with you. I am not here to do anything but to be with you."

One of the committee asked Mr. Greeley whether he was not fatigued after his day's journey.

"Oh, no," he replied quickly. "I am generally very tired on Saturday evenings, but I am not tired today. I am not tired today. I am not tired today."

It had been noticed about the grounds that the next President was in the reception room, and an immense concourse of people gathered about him.

Mr. Greeley was introduced to the members of the Reception Committee, and the members of the Reception Committee were introduced to him.

"Greeley is here! Greeley is here!" he heard the enthusiastic assemblage. With Mr. McKee, the next President, he was introduced to the members of the Reception Committee.

MURDER IN BATAVIA STREET.

A Quarrel Between Children Ending in the Death of One of the Parents—Barrage of Friends' Skulls in the Street.

Yesterday afternoon Jerry Haggerty, of 22 New Chambers street, George Sullivan, of 23 Water street, and several others were on a visit to 7 Batavia street. A quarrel arose about some children.

A party went down into the street, and the children who were the cause of the trouble followed. One of the children remarked to another that she had sore eyes, to which the other retorted that it was no, as she had been cured.

Haggerty, who had been listening, told Sullivan's child to shut up making use of a vile expression which Sullivan resented. The quarrel was thereby renewed, and the cry of "police" was raised.

When the police arrived they found Sullivan lying senseless on the sidewalk with his head covered with blood. The other children fled.

It was carried to the Oak street police station and the ambulance was sent for.

In the quarrel Haggerty and Sullivan were the head with a heavy bottle and fractured his skull. Haggerty and his party ran into a large tenement house and barricaded themselves.

From whence they made their escape after a short time. Sullivan was taken to the police station, where he died.

THE CHAMPION TOAD FISHER.

"Two H's" Seely and the Methodist Minister—A Little Boy's Story—When You Fish Know What You are Catching.

Yesterday morning a genius shaped like an overgrown Virginia peanut visited Mr. Henry La Forge on Staten Island. He had a fishing rod that looked like the handle of a dung fork whitened with fish-bone.

The three and another boy had planned to go in a small boat with the official. Fearing that four might be too many for such a light boat and interfere with the speed, they sent the fourth boy to get a ring.

He returned, the three others were rowing and toward the New York shore.

The alarm was given, but the only boat on the island had been taken away. The young convicts landed at the shore, and the three others were rowing and toward the New York shore.

SUNDAY PRIZE FIGHTING.

No Fizzle This Time—The Seventeenth Ward on its Muscle—Morris's and the Yacht Police.

A rivalry which has existed for some time past between the gangs of the Seventeenth Ward recently culminated in a match between the leaders of the gangs, John Casey and Bob Russell. Yesterday was appointed for the meeting, and Westchester was the place selected.

From 2 o'clock A. M. every Harlem car was filled with those anxious to see the "mill," but from their quiet demeanor no one suspected their object.

Arrived at Harlem bridge, a walk of about four miles across fields and through woods brought the party to a pleasant open glade, with woods on three sides. The fourth side was separated from open fields by a fence. The ropes and stakes were produced, and a ring was formed without delay.

THE MEN. John Casey is a light, slender built, looking as little as an ant and tough as a hickory knot. He is nearly 21 years of age, and weighs about 130 pounds. His height is five feet five inches. For colors he wore white and green.

Bob Russell is a heavy, dark complexioned, and looks more clumsy. He is 23 years of age, weighs 150 pounds, and is five feet seven inches high. He wore white and blue.

Nearly a hundred of the Seventeenth Ward were present, and the time was not in getting the men to work. Jim McKeever and Jerry Hennessy were seconds to Casey, and Harry Jones and Larry Herring were seconds to Russell. Dick Toner of the Band Box in street was to have been Russell's principal second, but having drunk for the night, he was unable to act. Tom Toomey, better known as Irish Tom, was chosen referee.

THE FIGHT. Preliminaries having been arranged, Casey shed his outer coat, and, almost before the crowd could get to the ring, he was in the ring. Russell, who had been waiting for Casey, stepped in, and at the word came to the scratch at 2:25 A. M. Casey led off, and Russell followed. The first round was a draw. Casey was a good fighter, and Russell was a good fighter. The second round was a draw. Casey was a good fighter, and Russell was a good fighter. The third round was a draw. Casey was a good fighter, and Russell was a good fighter. The fourth round was a draw. Casey was a good fighter, and Russell was a good fighter. The fifth round was a draw.
